Description

A rare C18 th Oak Belgian cabinet. From the Wallonia region in Belgium. Consisting of a cupboard top with a very decorative bold architrave, 2 panelled doors carved with flowers and foliage to the front corners and sides and 3 shelves within. resting on the lower cabinet. The top part has a horizontal panel again heavily carved which folds down to reveal a desk opening. Flanked by very ornately carved shoulders in an unusual rounded form creating an excellent surface to exhibit the craftsman's carving skills. The base has a further 4 panelled carved doors with shelves. This design is continued with carved flower and foliage panels on the sides. Resting on 2 paw feet at the front All original oak ,with very good patina Good condition
