Description

With wonderful book matched vaneer to the top and cross grain vaneer to the table top edge. Raised on a triangular concaved panelled base, each veneered panel beautifully cut , another slice from the same part of the tree creating the matching image. With detailed scroll carving on each edge. The scroll carved acanthus leaf edge is then repeated in larger more exaggerated form with concealed castors below. Wonderful condition, the table has a tilt top with brass catch.
