

Spanish inlaid Vargueno Chest in the Moorish style

Sold

REF: 211

Description

17th century stunning Varguano. It's a Spanish gentleman's travelling chest. Made in walnut with bone inlay. This decorative piece sits on a walnut table and when transported from town to country the chest would be lifted off the base table, hence the handles on the side of the chest and the table would remain. Dimensions: Height 139cm, Width 110cm, Depth 49cm.